ALL IS READY.

Preparations for Big State Fair Complete-Splendid Grounds-Temporary Buildings Erected.

Prof. J. S. Duss Leader of Famous Band.

September 18-23!

For the past several months these dates have been impressed upon the people of Kentucky in every possible way. They have been posted on bill boards, they have gone out on letter heads, they have appeared in innumerabe newspaper advertisements and reading notices. They are the dates on which the Big Kentucky State Fair, the largest and most pretentious exhibition of the kind ever attempted in the South, will be held.

THIRD STATE FAIR.

Fair. There have been two others. fair are sc large and there are so One was at Louisville in 1902 and the other at Owensboro in 1903. The first was a moderate success: the second, from a financial standpoint, was a disastrous failure. [Quite a number of fairs were held before the war, and one or two after it closed.—Ed.]

But from a consideration of the class of exhibits and of their advantage to the State, both must be counted beneficial. This year's fair will be held at Lexington. That fact alone is enough to arouse of the State's live stock and agri-cultural interests. Around her are Gayle. grouped the most important lot of stock farms in America. She is the market of America for thoroughbreds, for trotters, for saddle and carriage horses. From her bluegrass pastures go forth the export cattle, which furnish Christmas beef to England's most favored lords. Her sheep are served as choice viands to royalty in many countries of Europe.

LEXINGTON IDEAL LOCA-

TION.

Lexington is a great place for fairs. She has a way of giving better fairs than any other city in the State could ever give and she invariably makes a success of them. Is it any wonder, then, that the State Fair, located at Lexington, with $15,000 appropriated by the State and a guarantee fund of $12,-500 put up by her citizens to offer —is it any wonder that under these circumstances the coming State Fair should arouse marked and widespread enthusiasm? Indeed, the wonder would be were there not such enthusiasm. For it there is every good reason. Under a management that can not the care of two doctors, but was getting no better when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me. "Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at all druggists, price 50c and $1.90. Trial bottle free. financial backing, with $25,000 to management that can not be excelled, with an enthusiastic Board of Centrol backing up an efficient and popular secretary, with men in charge of its various departments who have intimate knowledge of the detail work necessary to secure the best possible exhibits, the success of the fair is beyond doubt assured.

BEAUTIFUL GROUNDS.

The management of the fair was most fortunate in being able to secure the grounds of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association. This plant is probably the most complete of its kind and for its purposes in the world. The grand stands are adequate and comfortable. The mile track is not only one of the fastest, but one of the best from the standpoint of trainers and horses that could be built. The grounds themselves are sodded and beautified with every improvement that the highest art of the horticulturist could suggest. The stables are new, built on the latest and most approved patterns. and the whole plant is of a kind that could scarce be improved. It is splendidly adapted for the holding of a State Fair.

TEMPORARY BUILDINGS.

However, for the requirements of this year's fair it was necessary to erect certain temporary buildings, where displays of various classes of stock might be properly given and where that stock may be comfortably housed while it is here. For this purpose a large plot of ground belonging to the Gibson estate, and immediately adjoining the grounds of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association, was leased. Here hundreds of workmen have been and are now busily engaged completing these temporary buildings. On account of the crowded condition of the stables of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders Association it was necessary to provide accommodations for horses. To this end 76 box stalls have been erected, 9 by 10 each. There are eight cattle barns of dimensions 100 by 22 feet, which will care for 50 cattle each. There are two sheep pens and two hog pens, each with 64 stalls, 4 by fact that it will be necessary to show the cattle, sheep and hogs under tents. Heretofore at all fairs held in Lexington the cattle have been judged on the track or grounds in front of the grand stand. But the classifications for this year's This is not Kentucky's first State the classifications for this year's many exhibits to be given that it will not be possible to do this. Hence a large tent, 40 by 130 feet, will be placed to the west of the betting shed for the cattle show. A tent for the sheep show and one for the hog show will each be between the buildings erected for these two classes of stock.

NO UNPLEASANT EFFECTS.

If you ever took DeWitt's Little Early Risers for biliousness or conthe enthusiasm of the people of stipation you know what pill pleas-Kentucky and to guarantee its suc-ure is. These famous little pills cleanse the liver and rid the syscess. For Lexington is the center tem of all bile without producing

GASH CUT IN HEAD.

Mr. H. T. Smith, who lives on the Flat Creek pike, was hauling a load of rails, on Saturday, when one of them slipped from the top of the wagon and struck Mr. Smith on the forehead, cutting a gash two inches long to the bone. Dr. C. A. Fish attended to his injuries, closing the wound with two, stitches.

Mr. Smith will soon be all right again.

STRIKES HIDDEN ROCKS.

when your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of Consumption, Pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with Pneumonia, under the care of two doctors but was got.
